

Ginny Hegarty, SPHR

Speaker / Presenter Bio

With over 25 years of experience in dentistry, certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) and an extensive background as a speaker, write and consultant, Ginny Hegarty is internationally recognized as a leader in dentistry and uniquely qualified to assist dentists in practice management and team development. Her expertise in leadership, accountability, communication and employee engagement will enable you to cut through the drama and build a solid team that will support sustainable, bottom-line success.

Ginny is the Founder and President of Dental Practice Development, Inc. which provides practice and team development services to dentistry since 1997 and proudly serves as the Immediate Past-President of The Academy of Dental Management Consultants.

Ginny is a Faculty Presenter for the course 4 Steps to a Great Hire in the ADA's Executive Certificate Program with the University of Notre Dame. She also serves ADA Consultant to the Council on Dental Practice for 2014-2015. In addition, Ginny's podcasts on HR Best Practices are available on the Academy of General Dentistry (AGD) website.

Ginny's articles can be seen in the ADA digital magazine Dental Practice Success. She also authors the HR411 column in the Progressive Dentist Magazine. Ginny was a featured speaker at The Las Vegas Institute for 7 years and also lectured at the Kornberg School of Dentistry at Temple University in Philadelphia as part of the Practice Management Program.

While Ginny is grateful to work with clients in over 40 states, Canada, and the UK, she and her family are loyal Phillies, Eagles and Flyers fans and call the Philadelphia area home. Reach Ginny at 610-873-8404 or via www.ginnyhegarty.com