

Ginny Hegarty, SPHR

Speaker Intro

With over 25 years of dental experience, certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) and an extensive background as a international speaker, published author and consultant, Ginny Hegarty is best known as a turnaround expert specializing in practice leadership, accountability and employee engagement. Her expertise in leadership, communication and human resource development will enable you to cut through the drama and build a solid team that will support sustainable, bottom-line success.

Ginny is the Founder and President of Dental Practice Development, Inc. providing practice management and team development services to dentistry since 1997. She proudly serves as the Immediate Past-President of The Academy of Dental Management Consultants and as an ADA Consultant to the Council on Dental Practice and is a Faculty Presenter for the course 4 Steps to a Great Hire in the ADA's Executive Certificate Program with the University of Notre Dame. Find her book with Stop Kissing Frogs: How to Find, Manage & Keep the Best People on her website, GinnyHegarty.com

While Ginny is grateful to work with clients in over 40 states, Canada, and the UK, she and her family are loyal Phillies, Eagles and Flyers fans and call the Philadelphia area home.
